Basic Info

In order to book a group at The Barn, you must have 11 or more guests in your party. You can expect perks like a 10% discount and the ease of not paying in full at the time of reservation. We require a $200 non-refundable deposit at the time of reservation and then your final count and balance will be due two weeks prior to your scheduled date. If after you've paid your final balance you wish to add more seats, the amount due for the additional seats will be due immediately. Much like our individual reservations, once you pay your final balance the tickets are non-refundable. If for some reason you have some guests that cannot make it last minute we do require at least 48 hours advanced notice in order to forward those tickets to another reservation.

Gratuity

For the rest of 2021 we will continue to pull $3 per ticket as gratuity for the wait staff. This is a 7% gratuity so if your guests felt inclined to tip on their whole experience then they are welcome to. If you would like to increase the pre-paid tip for ease of mind simply let us know and it can be assessed on your invoice. Beginning for groups coming in 2022, we will no longer be pulling $3 per person as gratuity. If you would like us to assess a pre-paid tip on your invoice please let us know.

Check-In & Assigning Tables

Please have your coordinator check-in the group at the box office upon arrival. If you have more than 16 guests in your group please be prepared to assign tables so our hosts can seat your guests efficiently.

Seating

If you would like to reserve particular tables please review our seating chart here: www.thebarniii.com/entertainment. Please note that we can only combine certain tables so please check with our group coordinator if you want larger seating. As soon as you book, Sagan will send you an invoice and seating chart showing you exactly which tables are reserved for your group. If by the final due date you need to release seats, please be sure to verify which seats are being released and if you have a preference let Sagan know!

Menu

Our menus will be posted online at www.thebarniii.com/menu ahead of each production. If you have any questions regarding our options, please review the menu online once it's been posted. Selecting entrée options ahead of time is not required as we take your order at the table.

Bus Parking

If you have a bus please see the next page for images on where to park. Some large buses can make it through our circle drive, but other bus drivers don't want to attempt it! Feel free to pull into the parking lot and unload your guests as close to the door as you can. Then pull into the appropriate parking indicated behind the brick house in front of The Barn.
